

CERTIFICATE OF DECONTAMINATION

In order to ensure the safety of our employees, Senior Metal Bellows must have a properly completed Certificate of Decontamination for all items being returned. Any item that is not accompanied with a Certificate of Decontamination will not be processed.

Please complete the form carefully and attach it to the item or instrument being returned.

Return Authorization Number:
Part Number:
Revision:
Description of Part:
Serial Number:

NO DECONTAMINATION REQUIRED

The above mentioned item has not been in contact with any biological, chemical, or radioactive material that might cause infection or may injure a third person.

DECONTAMINATION REQUIRED

The above mentioned item has been in contact with biological, chemical, or radioactive material and must be decontaminated prior to return. Please provide details.

Describe Decontamination Procedure:

STATEMENT OF SAFETY

By accepting authorization to return this product, I assume all responsibility for biological, chemical, and radiological decontamination and cleaning. I understand that Senior Metal Bellows has no obligation to repair or service any product unless adequate information is provided to ensure the safety of all personnel handling the exposed product.

I, _____ certify that the item listed above has been examined by me for any possible hazardous materials and is safe for handling.

Signature: _____ Title: _____

Phone: _____ Date: _____